Focus 2025 Bible Conference

Herb Reavis, Jr.

Herb Reavis, Jr. has been the pastor of North Jacksonville Baptist Church since September of 1991. He is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Milligan College in Tennessee, and the Southern Baptist School for Biblical Studies in Jacksonville, Florida. Pastor Reavis is seen throughout North Florida and Southeast Georgia on the weekly broadcasts of "Reach Out". He is also heard daily on the "Reach Out" radio program broadcast on WROS in Jacksonville. Pastor Reavis and his wife Lisa have three sons, Joshua, Jonathan, and Joseph. Jonathan and Rebecca were married in June 2005 and shortly after, in February 2006, Joshua and Sarah were married. Pastor Reavis and Lisa are now proud grandparents.

Bob Pitman

Bob Pitman began preaching at age sixteen and has been preaching for fifty-nine years. For thirty-three years he served as a Senior Pastor in churches affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention (Wall Highway Baptist Church, Madison, AL, three years; First Baptist Church, Muscle Shoals, AL, eleven years; Kirby Woods Baptist Church, Memphis, TN, nineteen years). He is a native of Florence, AL. He is also a graduate of Samford University in Birmingham, AL (B.A. degree, 1970), and Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary in Memphis, TN (M.Div. degree, 1977; Ph.D. degree, 2004). He has preached over 1,000 revival meetings and Bible conferences in the USA and has also preached in several conferences in Europe and Africa and he is an author of four books.

Jim Moss

Evangelist Jim W. Moss was born in Pine Bluff, Arkansas and called to preach at the age of 14. As a teenager, he preached 77 revivals in various states. At the age of 18, he became pastor of the Macedonia Baptist Church in Humnoke, Arkansas. In 1978 and 1979, Macedonia was the fastest growing church in Arkansas with over 250 baptisms recorded. God moved him to Shelbyville, Texas in 1981, where he pastored the Ephesus Baptist Church until the year 1990. Then he became pastor of First Baptist Church located in San Augustine, Texas for the next 10 years. Both churches received recognition for the largest percentage Sunday School growth and twenty percent baptism increase. In 2000, Brother Moss surrendered to the call of evangelism.

Joseph Adams

Joseph Adams is the pastor of First Baptist Church in Hughes Springs. He has been Pastor there for seven years. He has led the church to become an evangelistic, mission-focused congregation. Under his leadership Mission giving has gone from 2% to 10%. The church is regularly reaching people and seeing them baptized. Seven years ago, FBC Hughes Springs had about 60 in attendance; today they average nearly 500 per Sunday. Joseph served five years on Texas Baptists' Missions Funding Council, and is currently the Second Vice President of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. Joseph was born in Germany to missionary parents, grew up primarily in New Mexico, where his father was a pastor. Before coming to Hughes Springs, Adams served eight years as associate pastor of Mountain Springs Baptist Church in Albuquerque, N.M. He earned both his undergraduate degree and his Master of Leadership in Biblical Counseling degree from Liberty University. Joseph and his wife Lindsay have five children—Elliott, Noah, Emma, Parker and Walker. Lindsay serves as the First Grade Teacher at Woodland Hills Christian Academy.

Herman Cramer

At the young age of 28, Herman Cramer was considered successful by the Worlds' standards. After graduating from High School, Herman began farming the rich and fertile ground of the Rio Grande Valley of Texas. After acquiring 3000 acres of farm land Herman had the World in his hands. Herman experienced a harvest like no other, his own life. Herman experienced a personal call to the Gospel ministry one year after his dramatic salvation experience. Herman makes his home in Seguin, Texas where he is a member of the First Baptist Church. Herman was married to Judell for 57 years before she passed away on March 17, 2019. Herman is a graduate of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth, Texas. He is now serving his 43rd year in full time evangelism. He served as vice-president and president of the Conference of Texas Baptist Evangelists. Herman also received the Roy Fish Lifetime Achievement Award from the Southern Baptist of Texas Conference. Herman consistently averages 30 to 32 revival services a year.

Allen Randle

Pastor Allen R. Randle, Sr. is a native of Baldwin, LA and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Randle, Sr. of Franklin, LA. Born to this union on January 25, 1966 in Lafayette, LA, he is the second child of five children. He is happily married to Pamela Denise Randle, and they have two God-Sent children, Kaitiin Janay and Allen Ray, Jr. Prior to becoming the founding and organizing pastor of the Lighthouse Missionary Baptist Church of Franklin, New Iberia, and Abbeville, LA. (One Church—Three Locations), Pastor Randle was an English teacher in the public school system for 17 years in Texas and Louisiana. As a young minister of the gospel, not long after accepting and announcing his call into the ministry in 1995, he attended the College of Biblical Studies in Houston, TX. Pastor Randle has been pastoring for the last 19 years after being commissioned by God to leave Galveston, TX, and return to Franklin, LA in March of 2000. Since returning to Louisiana, he has not only watched God add great numbers to the church, but he has also seen the hand of God in other aspects of his life. In November of 2019, Pastor Randle had the privilege of sharing his book in a Leadership conference in Kenya, Africa, where over two hundred of his books were distributed, changing the lives and ministries of many Bishops, Pastors, and church leaders. At the end of 2020 Pastor Randle simultaneously completed two books: one entitled, Becoming the Best Me and the other entitled, Fishing for Souls: The Responsibility of Every Believer.

Mark Humble

Bro. Mark Humble is currently the Senior Pastor at the Faith Baptist Temple, Port Neches, Texas. Faith Baptist Temple was planted as a church in October, 2004. Under his leadership the church has continued to grow and prosper each year, numerically and spiritually. Pastor Mark entered the gospel ministry as a Music Evangelist at the age of 14. He took his first church staff position at 15 as minister of music and youth. Through the next 45 years he has ministered to several churches in various staff positions. Bro. Mark has pastored for 29 years of these 46 years. He has planted churches, Christian schools and currently provides a home school network for troubled teens, with an average of 80 students a year. Bro. Mark continues to preach or lead music at over 20 church's a year and maintains a full time pastorate. He is a well known gospel pianist in Southeast Texas. He is usually found around his friends laughing from the joy of Christ Jesus, lifting others with gospel preaching, and loving others through the love of God through Christ Jesus.
